

Terms and Conditions Agreement

By registering and participating in USINFI Advocacy Days, each person acknowledges and agrees to the following restrictions as the criteria of being accepted to attend.

Information Sharing

ATA may share contact data included on your registration form to include name, professional title and organization with other attendees and presenters. By registering for this event, you agree to your information being shared.

Anti-Trust Compliance

It is the policy ATA to comply fully with the antitrust laws. In order to comply with those laws and to prevent USINFI virtual lobby day from being used for unauthorized activities you agree to follow our Compliance Program Concerning Federal Antitrust Laws by registering for this event. These policies will be strictly followed throughout USINFI Advocacy Day in order to protect all registrations. ATA staff has periodically been briefed on the antitrust laws by ATA counsel. If, during the course of this event a staff member requests a registrant cease and desist any discussion because of a potential risk, you are asked to cease such discussion immediately and follow the instructions of the ATA staff person. For more information about our Compliance Program Concerning Federal Antitrust Laws, please contact ATA at +1 800-225-4324.

Admittance and Removal

In ATA's sole discretion, we reserve the right to refuse admittance to or expel from the event anyone that we determine is behaving in a manner that could be disruptive to the event or any other attendee.

Views Expressed

The views expressed by any attendee, speaker, sponsor are not necessarily those of ATA or its representatives. All USINFI Advocacy Day attendees, speakers, exhibitors and sponsors are solely responsible for the content of any and all individual or corporation presentations, marketing collateral, advertising and online Web content.

Cancellation of Event and/or Education

USINFI lobby day organizers may at any time, with or without giving notice, in their absolute discretion and without giving any reason, cancel or postpone USINFI lobby day, change its format or any of the other published particulars, or withdraw any invitation to attend. In any case, neither the organizers nor any of their officers, employees, agents, members or representatives shall be liable for any loss, liability, damage or expense suffered or incurred by any person.

Although every reasonable effort is made to provide the speakers, topics, and sessions listed, some changes or substitutions may occur. Speakers and sessions are subject to cancellation or change up to and including the day the session(s) are scheduled to be held. Changes or cancellations are made at the discretion of ATA and may be done without notifying attendees. Agreement to attend the webinar acknowledges acceptance of this provision.

Code of Conduct

By registering to attend you are agreeing to and expected to conduct yourself in a professional and safe manner. Expectations include but are not limited to respect for commonsense rules for behavior, interaction, common courtesy, and respect. Any behavior or act found to be in violation of these guidelines will result in the immediate removal of all parties participating in said behavior or act. Please contact an ATA Staff Member if you feel you have been subject of such violations or if you see violations occurring.

Recording/Live-Streaming of Sessions/ Pictures

ATA does not allow the photographing, recording, or livestreaming of any session or events unless express permission is given by the speaker, facilitator, or event organizer. This rule is to protect the intellectual property of our speakers, facilitators. Anyone found to be in violation of this rule will be removed from USINFI lobby day.

Liability Waiver & Release

In consideration of your registration and attendance of this event, you waive any and all claims that you or any future agent or heirs has or may have in the future against ATA, their agents, employees, servants, and officials and release them from all risks, liability and covenant not to sue them for any expense, loss, damage, personal injury, including loss of life, disability, property damage, or property theft, including reasonable attorneys' fees and litigation expenses, or actions of any kind that you may suffer or sustain, before, during or after the webinar, unless such was caused by the gross negligence of ATA.
